Chris Schueler
VP Technical Operations
NTS - Chesapeake Testing
4603B Compass Point Road
Belcamp, MD 21017

Notice of NIJ-approved Laboratory Status
Laboratory: NTS - Chesapeake Testing
Scope: NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 7, Ballistic Test
Methods
NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 6, Hard Armor
Conditioning Protocol
NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 5, Hard Armor
Conditioning Protocol
NIJ 0115.00, Stab Resistance of Personal Body Armor
NIJ 0112.03, Autoloading Pistols for Police Officers, Revision A.
Expiration: April 30, 2024

Dear Mr. Schueler:

The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) has completed its review of your application for continued participation in the NIJ Compliance Testing Program (CTP). We hereby inform you that your laboratory will continue to be recognized on NIJ's list of approved laboratories, which is made available at www.cjtec.org. As an NIJ-approved laboratory, you are authorized to conduct compliance testing of ballistic-resistant body armor, stab-resistant body armor, and autoloading pistols in accordance with the standards listed above. All terms and conditions noted in your signed Compliance Testing Program Laboratory Application and Agreement are in effect and will remain so unless otherwise modified in writing by NIJ.

Any questions regarding your laboratory status as it pertains to the NIJ CTP should be directed to the Criminal Justice Testing and Evaluation Consortium by telephone at 984-439-5241or by email at bactp@nijctp.org, or to me by telephone at 202-307-3384 or by email at mark.greene2@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

Mark Greene, Ph.D.
Technology and Standards Division Director
Office of Research, Evaluation and Technology
National Institute of Justice