

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Justice Programs

National Institute of Justice

Washington, D.C. 20531

Matthew Lutz
General Manager
Element Materials Technology Wichita
1072 Industrial Parkway, North
Wichita, KS 67025

Notice of NIJ-approved Laboratory Status

Laboratory: Element Materials Technology Wichita

Scope: NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 7, Ballistic Test
Methods

NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 6, Hard Armor
Conditioning Protocol

NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 5, Flexible Armor
Conditioning Protocol

NIJ 0115.00, Stab Resistance of Personal Body Armor

Expiration: April 30, 2024

Dear Mr. Lutz:

The National Institute of Justice (NIJ) has completed its review of your application for continued participation in the NIJ Compliance Testing Program (CTP). We hereby inform you that your laboratory will continue to be recognized on NIJ's list of approved laboratories, which is made available at www.cjtec.org. As an NIJ-approved laboratory, you are authorized to conduct compliance testing of ballistic-resistant body armor, stab-resistant body armor, and autoloading pistols in accordance with the standards listed above. All terms and conditions noted in your signed Compliance Testing Program Laboratory Application and Agreement are in effect and will remain so unless otherwise modified in writing by NIJ.

Any questions regarding your laboratory status as it pertains to the NIJ CTP should be directed to the Criminal Justice Testing and Evaluation Consortium by telephone at 984-439-5241 or by email at bactp@nijctp.org, or to me by telephone at 202-598-9481 or by email at mark.greene2@usdoj.gov.

Sincerely,

Mark Greene, Ph.D.
Office Director
Office of Technology and Standards
National Institute of Justice
U.S. Department of Justice