

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of Justice Programs

National Institute of Justice

Washington, D.C. 20531

Matthew Lutz
General Manager
Element Materials Technology Wichita
1072 Industrial Parkway, North
Wichita, KS 67205

Notice of NIJ-approved Laboratory Status

Laboratory: Element Materials Technology Wichita

Scope: NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 7, Ballistic Test
Methods

NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 6, Hard Armor
Conditioning Protocol

NIJ 0101.06, Ballistic Resistance of Body Armor, Section 5, Flexible Armor
Conditioning Protocol

NIJ 0115.00. Stab Resistance of Personnel Body Armor

Expiration: September 30, 2024

Dear Mr. Lutz:

The National Institute of Justice hereby informs you that your laboratory's status as an NIJ-approved laboratory for testing in accordance with the scopes identified above has been extended until a review can be completed. Your laboratory will continue to be recognized on NIJ's list of approved laboratories, which is made available at <https://cjtec.org/compliance-testing-program/nij-approved-test-laboratories/>. As an NIJ-approved laboratory, you are authorized to conduct compliance testing of ballistic-resistant body armor and in accordance with the standard listed above. All terms and conditions noted in your signed NIJ Compliance Testing Program Laboratory Application and Agreement are in effect and will remain so unless otherwise modified in writing by NIJ.

Any questions regarding your laboratory status as it pertains to the NIJ CTP should be directed to the Criminal Justice Testing and Evaluation Consortium by email at bactp@nijctp.org or by telephone at 984-439-5241, or to me by email at mark.greene2@usdoj.gov or by telephone at 202-598-9481.

Sincerely,

Mark Greene, Ph.D.
Office Director
Office of Technology and Standards
National Institute of Justice